ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
LEGAL RIGHTS CENTER, INCORPORATED

We, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 317, Minnesota Statutes, known as the Minnesota Non-Profit Corporation Act, do hereby associate ourselves together as a body corporate and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The name of this corporation shall be Legal Rights Center, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II.
The purposes of this corporation shall be:

A. To provide adequate legal services to people, regardless of race, creed, color, national origin, political belief, sex, or age, where they cannot obtain such services elsewhere.

B. Develop programs and projects to improve the administration of justice, improve probation and parole services, and to provide alternatives to present procedures.

C. Provide training in the representation of poor people to lawyers and law students, and to community people.

D. To make and receive distributions to and from organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or future United States Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE III.
This corporation shall not afford pecuniary gain to its members, incidental or otherwise, other than compensation for services rendered.

ARTICLE IV.
The period of duration of corporate existence of this corporation shall be perpetual.
ARTICLE VI.

This corporation shall have the power to lease, buy, sell, and encumber real estate, securities and bonds, to make investments; to receive and make charitable contributions; to accept testamentary devises; to hire and discharge lawyers, secretaries and clerical personnel, and professional and community service personnel, and to make contracts for special services.

This corporation shall have the power to make contracts with departments of government and with public and private agencies in connection with the legal representation of the poor.

This corporation shall have the power to exercise all other powers conferred by the Statutes of the State of Minnesota.

ARTICLE VII.

The legal representation to be supplied by this corporation, the determination of legal and ethical issues, and all relations between attorney and client shall be within the exclusive determination of the lawyers employed by this corporation.

The members of this corporation shall consist solely and exclusively of persons who constitute the directors of the corporation from time to time. When a person becomes a director of the corporation he shall concurrently with becoming such a director, automatically become and be a member of the corporation, and when a person ceases to be a director of the corporation he shall, concurrently with ceasing to be such a director, automatically cease to be a member of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Board of Directors shall consist of not fewer than three (3) nor more than thirty (30) persons each of whom shall hold office until the first annual meeting of members of the corporation or until his or her successor shall be elected. The names and addresses of the members of the first Board of Directors are as follows:

Peter Dorsey
1916 Irving Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55405

Syl Davis
2001 Portland Avenue
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55407

-2-
of the members of the Board of Directors subsequent to the first Board of Directors shall be prescribed by the By-laws of the corporation.

Inability of any member of the Board of Directors to serve because of ill death, removal or resignation shall not affect the power of the remaining directors conduct the business of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX.

No officer or director or member of this corporation shall be personally liable for any corporate obligation or liability.

ARTICLE X.

This corporation shall have no capital stock.

ARTICLE XI.

The funds or activities of this corporation shall not be used to carry on propaganda or to influence legislation, nor to intervene in any political campaign.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Laws, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or any future United States Internal Revenue Laws.

ARTICLE XII.

Each director of the corporation shall have one vote. No votes may be cast by proxy.

ARTICLE XIII.

The By-laws of the corporation shall provide for the number of directors of the corporation subject to these Articles; shall provide for the manner and time of calling regular and special meetings, and regular and special elections; shall provide for the method of election and removal of directors; shall provide for the elections of the officers of the corporation; shall provide for the manner and conditions for removal of directors and officers; shall provide for the method of altering and amending the By-laws.

ARTICLE XIV.

No officer or director of the corporation shall make or attempt to make a loan to any officer, director, or employee of the corporation out of the funds and/or assets of the corporation.

ARTICLE XV.

The corporation shall establish methods for a full, complete and fair accounting of the finances of the corporation. An annual audit by a Certified Public Accountant shall be made of the banks and records of the corporation for submission to the annual meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XVI.

The officers of the corporation shall be president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. The terms of office and the duties of said offices shall be specified in the By-laws. Additional offices may be created through adoption of or amendment to the By-laws.

ARTICLE XVII.

The By-laws shall specify the requirements for the form of notice for regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors and shall specify the manner of giving notice. The By-laws shall specify a method for giving notice of any and all amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and to the By-laws of the Corporation. The By-laws shall establish a quorum requirement for the meetings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The books and records of the corporation shall be kept at the registered office. Any director of the corporation or his duly authorized attorney or agent may inspect such books and records at any reasonable time at said place. The corporation shall have available the regular statement of its financial condition on the request of any director or member at reasonable time.
ARTICLE XIX.

Upon dissolution of this corporation, the assets must be dedicated to an exempt purpose, in compliance with the United States Internal Revenue regulations, notwithstanding any other provisions of Federal or State law or regulation.
