United Church of Christ. Minnesota Conference
Conference Records, 1856-1996.
68.0 cubic feet (67 boxes; 1 volume in a partial box; 1 oversize folder, unboxed).

Correspondence, subject files, minutes, financial records, annual meeting and committee files, and records of and about individual congregations, all documenting the Minnesota Conference of the United Church of Christ (formed in 1957) and its merged predecessors, the Congregational Conference of Minnesota and the Northern Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The United Church of Christ was established in 1957 with the union of two Protestant denominations: the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches of the United States. Each of these was, in turn, the result of a union of two earlier traditions.

The Congregational Churches were organized when the Pilgrims of Plymouth Plantation (1620) and the Puritans of the Massachusetts Bay Colony (1629) acknowledged their essential unity in the Cambridge Platform of 1648.

The Reformed Church in the United States traced its beginnings to congregations of German settlers in Pennsylvania founded from 1725 on. Later, its ranks were swelled by Reformed immigrants from Switzerland, Hungary and other countries.

The Christian Churches sprang up in the late 1700s and early 1800s in reaction to the theological and organizational rigidity of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches of the time.
The Evangelical Synod of North America traced its beginnings to an association of German Evangelical pastors in Missouri. This association, founded in 1841, reflected the 1817 union of Lutheran and Reformed churches in Germany.

The national headquarters of the United Church of Christ is located in New York City. It is divided into conferences, each headed by a conference minister. The Minnesota Conference of the UCC was established in a 1957 merger of the Congregational Conference of Minnesota and the Northern Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Minnesota Conference is headquartered in Minneapolis.

Most of the information for the above historical sketch was taken directly from the web site of the United Church of Christ.

DESCRIPTION OF THE RECORDS

The records document the work of staff and voluntary leaders of the conference, and the functioning and evolution of its administrative structure. Beneath the conference level, the records document the work of regional bodies and the experiences of individual congregations.

There is information about congregational building programs and anniversaries, the denomination's stands on social and other issues, and its ecumenical endeavors. Correspondents include conference ministers Carl A. Hansen, Francis X. Pirazzini, Jeffrey N. Stinehelfer, and Murdale C. Leysath; local ministers and parishioners; and officials of other denominations.

The records also document the conference’s operation of the Calhoun Beach Manor (1960-1989) in Minneapolis as United Church Homes, a residence for seniors.

Files on Individual Congregations.
The Minnesota Conference's records--mostly correspondence--of individual congregations (CC/UCC) filed alphabetically under the heading of either living or dead churches. There is one folder for each congregation, many of which contain photos of church property and/or members. Evangelical and Reformed congregation files prior to 1963 are located in the United Theological Seminary.

Church Registers and Record Books

The Church Registers and Record Books, printed by the denomination’s publishing house, include sections for lists of pastors, deacons, and other officers; lists of delegates to Council, Conference, and other meetings; lists of baptisms, members received, and members removed; marriages performed; charities and expenses; and annual church and Sunday School statistics. There are blank lined pages at the end of the book for minutes of meetings.

Certificate of Contributors to the American Home Missionary Society from the Lowry Hill Congregational Church, Minneapolis, December 28, 1892.
Accession no. 10,506

Correspondence, financial papers and other items (inclusive dates February 22, 1956 – January 7, 1959) relating to the Congregational Conference of Minnesota. The papers were originally in the possession of Jerome W. Brower of St. Paul, who was on the board of directors of the Conference and a member of its investment committee.

Included in the file are minutes of meetings of the board of directors, resolutions, correspondence, nominating committee reports, rosters of officers, agendas for meetings, and the following types of financial records: monthly balance sheets, state office expenses, summary of assets, budgets, income and expenditure sheets, and the Centennial Fund. Included in the latter are reports from Congregational churches throughout the state listing the amount of money pledged to the fund by each church and the amount actually paid by each church. These reports are filed under the date March 11, 1957.
