STATEMENT OF THE VICE PRESIDENT AT ROSE GARDEN CEREMONY HONORING THE INITIAL PARTICIPANTS IN THE YOUTH OPPORTUNITY CAMPAIGN

Mr. President, Secretary Connor, Secretary Wirtz, members of the Youth Opportunity Campaign Task Force, and distinguished guests:

Ten days ago the President announced a nation-wide Youth Opportunity Campaign to provide job opportunities for out-of-work young people between the ages of 16 and 21. The President asked me to head a task force to implement this Campaign.

I am pleased to report that the response to the President's appeal among federal, state and local government agencies, private businesses, and non-profit organizations has been most encouraging.

We meet here this afternoon to honor those firms who responded most promptly to the Youth Opportunity Campaign.

We should, however, recognize the excellent cooperation we have received from federal officials, state governments and countless mayors.

It is indeed a privilege to meet with the President this afternoon to recognize the contributions of those businessmen with us today and the encouraging beginning which has been made to the President's Youth Opportunity Campaign.

I am pleased to present to you the President of the United States.
