Correspondence, legal and personal documents of various sorts, financial records, printed materials, cards, awards and other memorabilia, newspaper and magazine clippings, sound and visual materials, and other materials pertaining to the personal and private lives and activities of Hubert Humphrey, Muriel Humphrey, their children, and other family members.

There are also some files of the Humphrey Family Advisory Committee (1978-1982), including minutes and related papers and files on tributes and memorial activities; correspondence, minutes, financial reports, and miscellany stemming from Humphrey’s service on the Encyclopedia Britannica board of directors (1969-1970); files on the education institutions (Macalester College and the University of Minnesota) with which he was involved, especially during 1969-1970; and files on the creation and endowment of the Humphrey Institute at the University of Minnesota.
