

Angus, Richard B.

Sept. 14, 1882

Hill to J.S. Kennedy

Re Angus, who writes, "he will always be happy to act as opportunity offers but without fee." "While Mr. Angus was vice president [of Manitoba Road?] with a salary of $15,000 per annum, I do not think there was so much occasion to pay him as Trustee also, but now that he is no longer a salaried officer of the Company, I think he should be paid as Trustee and remove the subject from any doubt either now or hereafter."
