

Broadwater, Charles A      Helena      June 19, 1884

essary, would be very advantageous. "I have written for a good coal man and have seen one who offers to go out quietly and fully explore the Sand Coulee country." "With a railway to the Falls and cheap coal I see no reason why it is not the cheapest and best place in Montana to reduce the ores of that whole country." [David] Shepard thanks you for his trip that you made so pleasant."

JJH LetterBook, 5/30/84 - 10/18/84. p. 82