

Canadian Reciprocity

February 8, 1911

Hill to President Taft

Am to speak tomorrow in Minneapolis to the business men on Reciprocity and will make a strong effort to disprove the claim that U.S. farmers can in any way be injured. Danger of Chamberlain plan of putting all colonies on same commercial footing with other nations as Great Britian. Am also to speak in Chicago on the 15th to delegations (5,000 representatives from all western and northwestern cities [reports on success of the Minneapolis speech in letter to Taft, Feb. 7 p. 367].
