

Cardinal, Joseph
of Osseo, Minnesota

1856.

"Was the man that brought Mr. [James J.] Hill with him to St. Paul or advised him to come. Mr. Cardinal was a French Canadian farmer residing six miles northwest of Osseo. His father's farm joined the Hill farm in Canada and on a visit by Mr. Cardinal to his home in Canada, young Hill asked him if there was any work in the States. Mr. Cardinal, who was then working on the docks in St. Paul invited Mr. Hill to come to St. Paul and told him he would get a job for him."
Clipping - Accession  ber 16. Filled in yellow envelope in front of fibredex box.

Cardinal, Joseph

1856

See

James J. Hill - Early life

