

Carroll, J.H.

December 14, 1910

J.H.Carroll to James J. Hill.

"I will be ready to go East, as per our talk on long distance, any day that you would like to have me go. There are a good many things that I feel that I could do for our Companies when I get to Washington, and I have been making my plans to go early in January."

General correspondence by date

