

Catlin, George March 30, 1906
Warren Upham, Minn.Hist.Soc., to Hill
Asking Hill to purchase for the Minnesota Historical Society a fine group of Catlin's Indian and Western paintings formerly owned by the King of Belgium and later owned in England. Attached is a list: "A series of 33 Paintings in Oil, 27 x 19 inches, in plain, narrow mouldings, the original frames, as exhibited by Catlin in London, 1858-9, later owned by the King of Belgium; now offered for sale at $3,500 by H. Williams, Bookseller, 307 Fifth Ave., New York."

General Correspondence by Date

