

Cipher & Telegraphic
Code

February 8, 1899

Thomas Burke to L. W. Hill.

"Whenever I receive a cipher message from St. Paul at night or on a Sunday I am not able to decipher it until the railroad offices are open because I have no Slater's Code."

General correspondence by date

