

Coeur d'Alene Railroad

March 19, 1887.

J.J.Browne to Hill.

Urges Hill to consider the importance of the Coeur d'Alene route in extending his line westward. Urges Hill to send a man to "examine the route and report upon the line and resources of the Spokane-Coeur d'Alene countries. Any person whom you may send I will such aid and [give] information as I may be able."
