

Connaught, Duke of

Sept. 7, 1906

Louis Egerton to Hill

My father, Alfred Egerton, died in May. You must "keep an eye on the Duke of Connaught's investments as his new comptroller has not had the financial experience my father had."
[see also letter of January 6, 1906]

General Correspondence by Date