

Conrad, Charles E. of Kalispell

To Hon. D. S. Lamont, Washington, D.D., Sept.
11, 1896

Conrad of Kalispell, Montana, went to Fort Benton in 1867 and with his brother succeeded to business of the old American Fur Co. there. His long acquaintance and excellent reputation with Blackfeet Indians induced them to employ him as their representative in making the treat for the cession of western portion of the Blackfoot reservation. Has 2 banks and other large business interests in Montana. Writes in his behalf.
