

Dunwoody, William H. May 13, 1901

William Dunwoody to Jas. J. Hill.

Mentions the "panic day" and states,
"please remember that I am among your friends ever ready to stand by you and your interests."

I was much pleased with your quoted interviews with the reporters."

General correspondence by date