

Field, Marshall

June 29, 1882

Marshall Field to J. J. Hill.

A Trust Company is to be organized soon in Chicago, similar to the Central Trust Co. of New York - capital will probably be a million dollars, but not less. Has put Hill's name down for $25,000 and hopes he will purchase the stock.

General correspondence by date

