

Hillier Farm

November 16, 1901

Carbon. [Toomey] to J. F. Conklin.

"Concerning Hillier Farm... we have had our architect look over the buildings on the farm, and he estimates the same as being worth, at least $8,000."

"The cost of these buildings in the first place, and the repairs, amounted to over $15,000, and the fences and other improvements $2,000."
