R. B. Angus to J. Kennedy Tod

"When I first essayed to check the account of George Stephen & Associates I found no books had been kept by them and few useful data preserved. The matter was therefore remitted to Mr Hill who expected to be able to supply from memory and from documents to which he had access all that was needful for an audit of the transactions. He has only lately been able to render assistance and together we have succeeded pretty well, but the business having been conducted rather informally, especially at Montreal, we shall have to trouble you again for some details and explanations. [redacted] asks several questions
