

Miller, [C.C. ?]

July 3, 1882

Report of Miller, chief engineer of Manitoba Road, "Examⁿ of the Railroad line, as located and partly graded... commencing at the boundary and going north I find the country well settled by Mennonites for a distance of eleven miles... &c" describing the terrain in detail in the Red River Valley.

St.P.M.& M.Ry.LetterBook 6:288(3/24/82-4/23/83)