

Hill, James J.-Office Students Sept. 2, 1902

H. Jenkins to James J. Hill.

"I was deeply interested in an article I read a short time ago entitled 'A School For Railway Presidents,' which gave an account of the methods you have taken to train young men for the more important railway positions."

General correspondence by date