

Hill, James J.-
Office Students

Sept. 17, 1900

Carbon. J.J.Hill to John Sterling.

"I will be glad to put Mr. Stillman's son into our Accounting Department, where he will have an opportunity to become acquainted with modern railway accounts in the best possible manner. We have a students' class in the department of disbursements for operation, which is where my own sons began and laid their foundation of knowledge of railway operation. Morti Schiff spent about eight months in the departme ..."

General correspondence by date