

[Hill], James N.

April, 1902

"Jim" to "My dear Father."

Has just returned from the West Coast where he found business "very brisk."

States that while he was in Seattle he "discussed the tunnel plans at length with Mr. Stevens & Judge Burke," and that "Later on if it is your purpose a terminal company can be formed or the new lines can be owned jointly."

General correspondenc by date