

Hill, Mary A.

December 21, 1884

Mary A. Hill to J.J.Hill.

Writes that her grandmother's health is failing fast, and does not believe she can live until spring. Has had the insurance on the house renewed. Plans to wait until spring to repair the house.

Written in blue pencil across top of letter are the words, "send her $100 to pay for repairs, &c."

General correspondence by date