

Railroads - Advertising

June 28, 1906

John Gilman to Hill

"I was the promoter and organizer of the first car sent out with the Northern Pacific Railroad over 20 years ago, the then Gov. Ordway of Dakota took charge of filling up this car, showing the resources of everything between St. Paul and Puget Sound. It proved a great success."

General Correspondence by Date