

Railroads - Dividends-2- January 19, 1899

venues are so well insured that its earnings will continue to grow faster than we seem able to absorb them through dividends at present rates. The holding Company however will enable us to do something in that direction." Re rumored strike, confined to train hands on Great Northern-about 350 men involved- passenger conductors will remain loyal and other substitutes are ready in case of need.

JJH LetterBook, 3/13/99 - 5/30/02, p. 147