

Railroads - Equipment

Nov. 5, 1903

Hill to D. Willis James

Describes changes in railroad equipment and methods -- engines, rails, bridges, tracks, &c. requiring more steel. "This has taken an enormous amount of steel," but most rys. in U.S. have now made these changes and will be using much less steel hereafter.

JJH LetterBook, 6/1/02 - 6/7/05, p. 320