

Railroads - Mail service November 6, 1888

Hill to Marvin Hughitt, Chicago

Rate paid railroads for mail transportation is lower than for any other service rendered by roads and the profit is even less than for coal. I will be glad to join any movement looking to the protection of the railroads.

JJH LetterBook, 4/12/88 - 2/7/89, p. 543

Railroads (map of)- St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba, and others. 1885.

See: S. G. Comstock to Jas. J. Hill, March (letterhead) 7, 1885.