

Railroads - United States      March 21, 1910

Hill to Senator T. E. Burton

Re breakdown of railroad transportation in U.S.
"I dislike to admit that the railroad situation of the country is in great danger of breaking down under the work it has to perform but the facts are so evident in every large center of population ... that I am unable to see an practical road to permanent relief."

JJH LetterBook, 3/17/10 - 5/26/11, p. 2