

Red River and Manitoba Railroad.

"The stock of the Red River & Manitoba R.R. commonly called the Breckenridge, Barnes link..."

See: Statement (unsigned and undated, but probably April 1, 1878, and probably in J.J.Hill's handwriting).

J.J.Hill was president of the Red River & Manitoba R.R. in 1879 when the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba R.R. was organized.

See: John S. Barnes to George Stephen,
June 16, 1879.

(over)

J.S. Kennedy was active in organizing the Red River &
Manitoba R.R., with funds to be furnished by Dutch bond holders, in 1877

P. 146 - U.S. Supreme Court

Case No. 207 - Farley Suit

Hill & Kirtson at - got into the R.R.,

see Page 192 - Same document

Red River and Manitoba Railroad

See: Original letter from J.J.Hill to Stephen, November 4, 1878.