

REED, WILLIAM THOMAS, Superintendent Motive Power and Machinery Seaboard Air Line. Office Portsmouth, Va. Born June 27, 1848, at London, England. He was educated at the Commercial College at Kent, England. Entered railway service 1862, since which he has been consecutively machinist apprentice London Chatham & Dover Ry of England; 1869 to 1871, machinist Grand Trunk Ry of Canada; 1871 to 1873, leading machinist same road at Stratford, Ont.; 1875 to 1877, foreman erecting and other shops same road at Montreal; 1877 to 1883, locomotive foreman same road, Belleville; 1883 to 1887, master mechanic western division Canadian Pacific Ry; 1887 to 1888, general master mechanic St. Paul Minneapolis & Manitoba Ry; 1888 to 1894, superintendent motive power and rolling stock Chicago Great Western Ry; 1895 to date, superintendent motive power and machinery Seaboard Air Line.

RWY OFFICIALS OF AMERICA, 1896