

Rogers, A.B.

May 22, 1887

A.B.Rogers to J.J.Hill.

Has found a feasible route as far west as Coeur d'Alene Mission. Has been across by the Mullan Wagon Road to the Fort. Is moving camp near the Divide but finds the country "fearfully cut up" and no sign that "any human being has ever been through.'

General correspondence by date

