

Stone Arch Bridge

February 22, 1902

George Walter Hale, Deadwood, S. D., to Hill

Was "Truthful James" of the Minneapolis Tribune years ago, who attacked your plan for a stone-arch bridge; also "pitched into you and the Government on the N.P. Short-line matter and the University. Now sends article prepared, (but never printed in) for the Times re Hill and the railroad merger.

General Correspondence by Date