N. Y.

J. Kennedy To H. H. H.

"I saw Mr. Stephen yesterday, and this morning I wired you that he and Mr. Angus were waiting the arrival of Mr. Mc Intyre tomorrow, when some decision as to 'Montana Southwestern' matters will be arrived at, and that Mr. Stephen would himself write you on the subject. He did not say anything very definite to me but he mentioned that his opinion that the C. P. R. Co. should have the property remained unchanged, and that the only question to settle was how much time they should have in in which to pay for it." One of the two roads is judged here by the other - i. e. the C.P.R. and the Manitoba - by the public.
