

Wade, I.C.

August 22, 1889

Hill to Wade, Jamestown, Dakota

[Re local fair about which earlier letters from Hill had been very sharp. JJH thereupon rescinded his promise of a contribution].

"Your failure to properly construe my telegram is more than evident in your last letter in which you choose to assume that I made a personal subscription in order to indirectly change the railroad rate, and you wrote a letter to the Northern Pacific people stating that this had been done."
