

Wellington, Wm. E.

Was superintendent of the North Western Packet Company in 1864, 1865 and 1866. On April 1, 1866 he became a co-partner of J.J.Hill and Blanchard in the firm J. J. Hill. The company was to transact in St. Paul a general transportation, storage and commission business.

See: Articles of agreement between Hill and Blanchard and Wellington, April 1, 1866.