

Wentworth, G.A.

[January 31, 1890]

Wentworth to JJH, General Correspondence

"I enclose draft for a thousand dollars in payment of shares sent me, and I wish to thank you especially for letting me in. I will be glad to see you when you come on and talk over more particularly Louis case I get much disturbed that his eyes [?] are so weak [?] just as he was getting enthusiastic in his work, or rather just as he was getting to think he could do something himself."
