

Wickes, Montana

May 21, 1904

Carbon. J.J.Toomey to Paris Gibson.

"Mr. Hill came to the conclusion that we should stop the work" [at Wickes, Mont.] at once, for the reason that his only reason for becoming interested in the proposition was for the purpose of trying to find manganese in paying quantities, whereas, from our recent operations we were developing a copper mine."

General correspondence by date