

Young, Winthrop

May 20, 1886

Hill to the President of the United States

Young is "one of the representative men in our State, always an upright and consistent democrat, who commands the confidence and respect of all who know him. There is no one who has longer or better represented the interests of his party in his locality."

JJH LetterBook, 3/22/86 - 10/22/86, p. 261