1857-1956.

1 box

An assemblage of miscellaneous materials pertaining to party conventions and to assorted campaign and political activities.

They consist of:

1. Letters concerning campaign speeches and funds, 1857-1859.
Written to party chairmen Charles D. Gilfillan and Daniel Rohrer by prominent politicians such as Stephen Miller, Ignatius Donnelly (Sept. 12, 1859), Francis Preston Blair, William Pitt Fessenden, Henry Wilson, Zachariah Chandler, Jane Grey Swisshelm (Sept. 21, 1859), James Wilson Grimes, John Parker Hale, Salmon P. Chase (May 11, 1857), and Alexander Ramsey (Sept. 29, 1859).
2. A Broadside for a "Grand Republican Rally," November 6, 1882.
3. 7th District convention materials, 1912. (acc. #12,660)
One packet of reports to the credentials committee of the 7th District Republican convention from the individual county committees, and two packets of rough minutes and notes of the district convention, held May 15, 1912, in Willmar.
The credentials reports give results of the presidential preference votes in the various counties and list the delegates and alternates to the district convention.
Counties represented include Big Stone, Chippewa, Grant, Kandiyohi, Lac Qui Parle, Lincoln, Lyon, Pope, Redwood, Renville, Stevens, Swift, Traverse, and Yellow Medicine.
4. Miscellaneous correspondence, 1914-1923 (1 folder, acc. #12,927).
Correspondents include Alice B. Nicols and Carl C. Van Dyke. Also included are letters received by Nettie Bancroft from the Republican party.
5. State convention minutes and miscellany for 1936 and 1940, and a copy of the platform adopted in 1940.

6. Convention proceedings, 1946, 1950, 1956 (acc. #7914).

Typed transcripts.

7. Delegate and alternate lists for Republican National Conventions,
1936-1952 (acc. #7914).
