The records include profit and loss statements, annual statements, annual reports, and a few letters concerning the reports. John A. Humbird was the company president and treasurer for a number of years, and he was succeeded by Thomas Jacob Humbird. The company's vice president was Frederick Weyerhaeuser and its secretary was Edward Rutledge. The company, which manufactured and distributed Idaho white pine, western soft pine, and ponderosa pine had its general offices at Sandpoint, and operations at Kootenai, Idaho, and Newport, Washington.

In 1930 there is filed a comparative report on operating averages of Humbird, Edward Rutledge Timber Company, Clearwater Timber Company, Pot-latch Lumber Company, and Boise-Payette Lumber Company.
