Northland Pine Company (Saint Paul, Minn.), creator.
Northland Pine Company records, 1899-1931.
4.0 cubic feet (5 boxes, including 12 volumes).

Articles of incorporation and minutes of meetings, accounts, journals, and ledgers, of the Northland Pine Company. Loose papers consist of annual statements and miscellaneous financial reports, 1907-1923.

The company was organized to "buy, sell, own, lease, and deal in lands, pine stumpage, logs, and other property, to manufacture, buy, sell, handle, and deal in lumber; to clear, improve, and dam streams; build, maintain and operate railways for logging and other purposes; and to drive sluice and convey logs...." The first headquarters of the operations were in Northern Minnesota. Among the officers and directors were William H. Laird, Fred S. Bell, Frederick Weyerhaeuser, and Charles Weyerhaeuser. The company was consolidated in 1925 with the Mississippi Lumber Company.

CONTAINER LIST

01191.docx
Box 1. Statements, undated and 1907-1916.

Box 2. Statements, 1917-1923.
Plat of Proposed Twin Cities Retail and Distributing Yards, undated.

Volume 11. Ledger, 1908-1925.
Volume 12. Ledger, circa 1908-1922.