HISTORICAL SKETCH

The military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States was a patriotic veterans' society of commissioned Union Army Civil War officers from the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. The national organization, known as the Commandery-in-Chief, was established April 25, 1865.

The Minnesota Commandery (chapter) was organized June 5, 1885. Charter members of the Minnesota organization included such prominent figures as John Benjamin Sanborn, Henry H. Sibley, and Lucius Frederick Hubbard. Commandery members were known as "companions."

DESCRIPTION OF THE RECORDS

The collection consists largely of foldered, chronologically-ordered papers (mostly correspondence) relating to candidates for membership, the payment of dues, meetings, banquets, and similar matters. There are also letterpress books, commandery annual reports, applications for membership, programs, dinner meeting menus, memorials, minute books, financial and accounting records, scrapbooks, newspaper clippings, membership registers, and articles or speeches on their Civil War experiences written by members. Financial records include ledgers, cash books, bills, invoices, statements, and reports. Of particular interest are biographical and military service data on the organization's members.

Correspondents include Minnesota Commandery recorders George Q. White and David L. Kingsbury; officials of the Commandery-in-Chief and of various other state commandries; and prominent Minnesota businessmen, government officials, attorneys, judges, clergy, et. al. Correspondents of note include: Grover Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison, Rutherford B. Hayes, John Charles Fremont, William Tecumseh Sherman, and other military and political figures.

Following this narrative are a Box List, a Volume List, and three appendices giving names of individuals for whom there is biographical and military service information in Memorials (box 25) and in Volume 32 (box 30).
