SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF THE RECORDS

Subject files kept by Ann Glumac, Manager of State/Tribal Affairs, an office created within the Executive Branch of the Carlson administration on August 7, 1996. Based in Duluth, the office coordinated information, policies, and communications between the state and the tribal governments and also served as the Governor's liaison to the Indian Affairs Council. Glumac resigned from the position in August 1997.

Containing correspondence, fact sheets, reports, and articles relating to state/tribal relations in Minnesota, the files cover such topics as litigation surrounding the exercise of the hunting, fishing and gathering rights of Native American peoples as found in 1837 and 1854 treaties; Native American gaming, particularly legal issues; intergovernmental work done by various Minnesota state agencies with regard to Native American issues; and the office's interactions with the Governor's Interstate Indian Council, Indian Affairs Council, National Governors' Association, and various tribal units, including Bois Forte, Fond du Lac, Grand Portage, Leech Lake, Mille Lacs, Prairie Island, Red Lake, Shakopee Mdewakanton, Upper Sioux, and White Earth.
