SPEECH

INDIANA GRIDIRON DINNER

APRIL 4, 1964

Run for Governor
again

Judge Hugh Dillin

(A Federal Judge is the only man who would dare speak so much Truth without fear of Contempt of Court!)

I was a little disappointed when I arrived here and found out
I had to address a political dinner.

① Judge's Have too much time for Research and writing!

I came out here with the distinct understanding that I would be addressing a college fraternity convention.

And to make matters worse, I found out we weren't even meeting in the Claypool Hotel.

I LEARNED THAT BILL BRAY HAD THE HONOR AND ~~THE HIGH~~ PRIVILEGE OF
ADDRESSING THE PHI DELTA THETA CONVENTION. THESE FINE UPSTANDING
STUDENTS PICKED JUST THE RIGHT MAN FOR THEIR KEYNOTE SPEECH.

THE REPUBLICANS HAVE ALL THE FUN.

I'M TOLD THE FRATERNITY BOYS GAVE HIM A ROUSING OVATION ~~BECAUSE~~

HE DIDN'T TAKE TOO MUCH OF THEIR VALUABLE TIME AND HE GAVE THEM A CHOICE BETWEEN PIETY AND PASSION AND THEY KNEW WHAT TO SELECT.

I'm beginning to wonder if Bobby Baker wasn't a republican plant!

Bill

2
L WHEN BILL GIVES THEM THE "WORD" HE REALLY SENDS THEM.

IT WAS PROBABLY THE MOST ~~ENTHUSIASTICALLY~~ ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVED SPEECH BILL WILL EVER MAKE DURING HIS RACE FOR GOVERNOR.

and, I UNDERSTAND THAT WHEN BILL GOT BACK TO WASHINGTON HE CHECKED IN FOR A LITTLE SPIRITUAL TREATMENT AT DOCTOR CHARLIE HALLECK'S CLINIC.

HALLECK
L IN CASE YOU DON'T KNOW, DOCTOR HALLECK'S CLINIC IS THE "AMERICAN ~~FARM~~ FARM BUREAU'S "DO IT YOURSELF PROGRAM" FOR LIQUIDATING THE CORN SURPLUS.

L I MUST SAY THE REPORTS WE GET IN WASHINGTON ABOUT THE CULTURAL ACTIVITIES AT THE CLAYPOOL ARE MOST ENCOURAGING.

BOBBY BAKER
WE ALWAYS THINK THAT WASHINGTON IS SETTING THE TONE AND THE PACE
FOR THE REST OF THE NATION. BUT I CAN SEE NOW THAT EVEN BOBBY BAKER COULD HAVE LEARNED A THING OR ~~TWO~~ TWO IN INDIANA.

I'M SO NAIVE I ALWAYS THOUGHT THAT INDIANA'S BIGGEST CLAIM TO FAME WAS ITS ROUGH-AND-TUMBLE BRAND OF POLITICS.

I EVEN THOUGHT THAT BASKETBALL WAS INDIANA'S FAVORITE INDOOR SPORT.

NOW I KNOW WHY MAYOR JOHNNY BARTON IS TRYING TO GET MORE ~~FOR~~ OF THESE FINE CONVENTIONS TO COME TO INDIANAPOLIS AND AWAY FROM FRENCH LICK.

AUTHOR'S -- CAPEHART-LIEBOWITZ

I'VE HAD OTHER ENCOURAGING CULTURAL REPORTS FROM INDIANA.

SOMEONE TOLD ME THAT MY OLD AND DEAR FORMER COLLEAGUE, HOMER CAPEHART, IS BUSY THESE DAYS WRITING A BOOK.....ITS TITLE, "MILITARY INVASIONS DURING AN ELECTION YEAR" OR "HOW TO LOSE WITHOUT TRYING."

WE HAVE ANOTHER AUTHOR IN OUR MIDST - A REAL AUTHOR, IRVING
LEIBOWITZ. AND YOU KNOW IT TAKES A GUY FROM BROOKLYN TO WRITE A BOOK ABOUT INDIANA.

I WANT TO GIVE A WORD OF WARNING TO VANCE HARTKE AND BIRCH BAYH.
YOU HAD BETTER LOOK OUT - "LEIBO" LOOKS ENOUGH LIKE PIERRE SALINGER TO RUN FOR THE SENATE.

BILL MILLER -- REPUBLICANS

I'M SORRY TO SEE THAT BILL MILLER IS QUITTING POLITICS. BUT I'V ALWAYS KNOWN THAT BILL IS A ^{SHREWD} ~~SHREW~~ NATIONAL CHAIRMAN. HE'S GETTING
THE ELEPHANT OFF HIS BACK WHILE THERE'S STILL TIME. HE KNOWS A LOSER
WHEN HE CARRIES ONE.

~~REDACTED~~

Virgin Loser
I'VE HEARD IT RUMORED IN WASHINGTON THAT BILL ~~MILLER~~ MILLER IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE TOLD A ⁴ SAINTS AND SINNERS LUNCH THAT IF YOU WANT A VIRGIN LOSER
--- TRY SCRANTON. BUT IF YOU WANT ONE WHO HAS ⁴ DONE IT AGAIN AND AGAIN.
TRY NIXON. !

now, THERE ARE A LOT OF REPUBLICANS WHO AREN'T AS SMART AS BILL. THEY'RE STILL PANTING FOR THE REPUBLICAN CONSOLATION PRIZE. Consolation Prize

I FIGURE THESE PRESIDENTIAL HOPEFULS CAN USE A LITTLE HELP SO I'M OFFERING THEM SOME CAMPAIGN SONGS. ² OF COURSE, THEY AREN'T AS CATCHY AS
"BIRCH BAYH'S CAMPAIGN JINGLE BUT they'll do for losers. ~~BIRCH TELLS ME THEY SHOULD DO.~~

Hassan HAROLD STASSEN'S SONG IS ~~EASY~~ EASY -- "BORN TO LOSE." that English ballad or "Roll me over and Do it Again"
FOR GEORGE ROMNEY AND BILL SCRANTON -- "WERE POOR LITTLE SHEEP" WHO HAVE LOST OUR WAY." or

HENRY CABOT LODGE -- "ABSENCE MAKES THE HEART GROW FONDER."

BARRY GOLDWATER -- "I'VE GOT PLENTY OF NOTHING."

NELSON ROCKEFELLER -- "I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANYTHING BUT LOVE."

And for the G.O.P. Convention --
I humbly suggest that old
Republican favorite
"Bewitched, Bothered, and Bewildered!"

I say -

INDIANA POLITICS

(V)

I CAN SEE THAT INDIANA POLITICS ARE OFF TO A ROUSING START
ALREADY. The Pulian Candidates are in the Race - Goldwater and Stassen are campaigning with Running lights in their navals!

I NOTE THAT ROGER BRANNIGAN IS NOT ~~THE~~ ROASTMASTER THIS YEAR AND EVEN THE YOUNGEST CHILD IN INDIANA KNOWS WHAT THAT MEANS - ROGER IS RUNNING FOR GOVERNOR.

Gov
Welsh

I agree that
GOV. WELSH IS GETTING SET FOR HIS FIRST PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.

I CAN OFFER HIM A LITTLE ADVICE -- BASED ON EXPERIENCE! Pain and DON'T ENTER ANY PRIMARIES OUTSIDE YOUR HOME STATE -- ESPECIALLY WEST VIRGINIA!

HARTKE

pleased to see here tonight
I'M ~~SORRY~~ VANCE HARTKE ~~ISN'T HERE~~ BECAUSE IT'S A TREAT TO WATCH

IN THE COMING OLYMPIC GAMES, THERE IS A NEW COMPETITION -- America has a TABLE
HOPPING -- AND ~~WE HAVE~~ Hopping A SURE WINNER -- VANCE HARTKE!

Birch
Bayh

BIRCH BAYH HAS MADE QUITE AN IMPRESSION ON WASHINGTON. HIS WAS THE OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE OF THE FIRST SESSION OF THE 88TH CONGRESS.
LAST SUMMER HE PLAYED IN THE ANNUAL CONGRESSIONAL BASEBALL GAME AND STOLE THE SHOW. HE WENT FIVE FOR FIVE, INCLUDING A HOME RUN AND MADE A CIRCUS CATCH OF A FLY BALL.

SOME SMART ALEX SPORTS COLUMNIST SAID THAT BIRCH COULD DO

MORE FOR HIS COUNTRY BY LEAVING CAPITOL HILL AND JOINING THE

WASHINGTON SENATORS

But, I say he's needed in both places!

SPEECH

INDIANA GRIDIRON DINNER

April 4, 1964

I was a little disappointed when I arrived here and found out I had to address a political dinner.

I came out here with the distinct understanding that I would be addressing a college fraternity convention.

And to make matters worse, I found out we weren't even meeting in the Claypool Hotel.

The Republicans have all the luck.

I learned that Bill Bray had the honor and the high privilege of addressing the Phi Delta Theta convention. These fine upstanding students picked just the right man for their keynote speech.

I'm told the fraternity boys gave him a rousing ovation because he didn't take too much of their valuable time.

It was probably the best-received speech Bill will ever make during his race for Governor.

I understand that when Bill got back to Washington and checked in for a little treatment in Charlie Halleck's clinic he regaled the boys with the Phi Delt "Sweetheart Song."

I think the words go something like this:

"You may live in a marble palace dear,

On a throne that was built just for you.

You may dwell in a tent in the Far Orient

Or a vine-covered cottage for two.

You may spend all your life as a gypsy's wife

Or live in a French Chateau.

But the love that is true you'll find waiting for you in in a Phi Delt bungalow.

Only I didn't know they were converting the Claypool into a bungalow.

I must say the reports we get in Washington about the cultural activities at the Claypool are most encouraging.

We always think that Washington is setting the tone and the pace for the rest of the nation. But I can see now that even Bobby Baker could have learned a thing or two in Indiana.

You know I'm so naive I always thought that Indiana's biggest claim to fame was its rough-and-tumble brand of politics.

I even thought that basketball was Indiana's favorite indoor sport.

Now I know why Mayor Johnny Bafton is trying to get more of these fine conventions to come to Indianapolis and away from French Lick.

I've had other encouraging cultural reports from Indiana.

Someone told me that my old and dear former colleague, Homer Capehart, is busy these days writing a book

Its title, "Military Invasions During an Election Year."

I've also been told that another former colleague, Bill Jenner, is blossoming forth as an author. His book is "Military Traitors Who Have Known Me."

We have another author in our midst - a real author, Irving Leibowitz. And you know it takes a guy from Brooklyn to write a book about Indiana.

I want to give a word of warning to Vance Hartke and Birch Bayh. You had better look out - "Leibo" looks enough like Pierre Salinger to run for the Senate.

I'm sorry to see that Bill Miller is quitting politics at the end of this term. But I've always known that Bill is one hell of a shrewd National Chairman. He can read the grass roots signs very well. He's getting off the elephant's back while there's still time.

But you know there are a lot of Republicans who aren't as smart as Bill. They're still panting for the Republican presidential nomination. Why, I'll never know.

I figure these hopefuls can use a little help so I'm offering them some campaign songs. Of course, they aren't as catchy as Birch Bayh's jingle, but they should do.

Dick Nixon's song is easy. "Born to Lose."

For George Romney and Bill Scranton it's "We're Poor Little Sheep Who Have Lost Our Way."

Henry Cabot Lodge can croon about "Those Faraway Places With Their Strange Sounding Names."

Barry Goldwater can sing "I've Got Plenty of Nothing."

And Nelson Rockefeller can belt out "I Can't Give You Anything But Love."

I can see that Indiana politics are off to a rousing start already.

I note that Roger Brannigan is not the Roastmaster this year and even the youngest child in Indiana knows what that means - Roger is running for Governor. After all these years as Roastmaster, you'd think the Press Club would oblige Roger, especially during a year when he could use the audience.

Gov. Welch is getting set for his first presidential primary. I can offer him a little advice - and this is one guy who ought to know. Don't enter any primaries outside your home state.

And another thing, Matt, George Wallace may not be so tough, but watch out for that guy from Chicago - Frank Midas McKinney's man, Lar Daly.

I'm sorry Vance Hartke isn't here because it's a treat to watch the fastest man with a handshake north of the Ohio River. He's almost as fast with the handshake as Matt Welch is with a veto.

Birch Bayh has made quite an impression on Washington. You know last summer he played in the annual Congressional baseball game and stole the show. He went five for five, including a home run and made a circus catch of a fly ball.

Well some smart aleck columnist was so unkind as to say Birch could do more for his country by leaving Capitol Hill and joining the baseball Senators.

I see my good friend Charlie Halleck is here so I'd like to read him a telegram that just came in.

It's addressed to the Honorable Charles A. Halleck, Minority Leader of the House of Representatives:

It starts, Dear Charlie.

"Your appearances on the Ev and Charlie Show are doing wonders for the Grand Old Party. As you know, Senator Dirksen has always been a particular favorite of mine.

But even with all his talents, he can't hold a candle to you. Keep up the good work. Who knows? You may still get tapped for Vice President."

Signed Thomas E. Dewey.

In closing I want you all to ponder this great truth and think what it means for America:

"Fifty per cent of the people in this nation are below average."
