

"THE COLLEGE STUDENT IN THE GREAT SOCIETY"

The above topic will be discussed by four Arizona State University students who will appear on a panel with Vice President Humphrey February 21 at 6:45 p.m. The show will be seen over KOOL Television (via state-wide network) at 10:30 p.m. February 22, 1967

The following is background on the students who will interview Mr. Humphrey.

* * * * *

Rod Jacobsen -- Mr. Jacobsen has lived in Arizona most of his life. He is a graduate student majoring in political science and is very active in the Young Republicans. He is considered a conservative. His parents live in Phoenix.

Mrs. Nancy Fletcher -- Mrs. Fletcher is a graduate student in political science. A native of California, she completed her graduate work at Syracuse University, prior to her enrollment at ASU. Her father, Dean McHenry, is chancellor of the University of California at Santa Cruz. She was married recently.

Steve Price -- Mr. Price, a native of Chicago, taught high school in California before moving to Arizona. He completed his undergraduate work at the University of Illinois, his Masters at ASU and is now working on his Doctorate in political science.

Douglas Brown -- Mr. Brown is a native of Illinois. His father serves on the faculty of the University of Illinois. He is a pre-ministerial student and will enroll in seminary. He is a Methodist. Mr. Brown, a senior, is the only undergraduate on the panel.

* * * * *

Each of these students was selected by Professor Pat Goodhall of ASU because of his academic excellence.

Minnesota Historical Society

Copyright in this digital version belongs to the Minnesota Historical Society and its content may not be copied without the copyright holder's express written permission. Users may print, download, link to, or email content, however, for individual use.

To request permission for commercial or educational use, please contact the Minnesota Historical Society.

www.mnhs.org