

APRIL 6, 1967

ARRIVAL STATEMENT OF VICE PRESIDENT HUMPHREY AT BERLIN

The President of the United States has asked me to convey to the people of Berlin his very best wishes and those of the American people.

This city has a very special meaning for us. Berlin is the symbol of the dauntless spirit of people everywhere who want to remain free.

I know that your city is today filled with dynamism, with movement and with progress.

And I have come to see it first hand.

I plan to breathe deeply your Berliner luft and to meet and talk with the brave people who make Berlin a city not only great, but free.

* * *

April 6-9, 1967

ARRIVAL STATEMENT

BERLIN

The President of the United States has asked me to convey to the people of Berlin his very best wishes and those of the American people.

2

This city has a very special meaning for us. Berlin is the symbol of the dauntless spirit of people everywhere who want to remain free.

3

I know that your city is today filled with dynamism, with movement and with progress.

And I have come to see it first hand.

4

I plan to breathe deeply your Berliner Luft and to meet and talk with the brave people who make Berlin a city not only great but free.

###

Minnesota Historical Society

Copyright in this digital version belongs to the Minnesota Historical Society and its content may not be copied without the copyright holder's express written permission. Users may print, download, link to, or email content, however, for individual use.

To request permission for commercial or educational use, please contact the Minnesota Historical Society.

www.mnhs.org