

MEMORANDUM

THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

April 21, 1967

Memo for The Files
From The Vice President

Attached are the notes from the Women's National Press Club dinner April 20.

The theme that I concluded with was the theme of freedom and responsibility - the emphasis on freedom of choice as the central principle of democracy. And freedom of choice includes, of course, a free press. I pointed out, however, that the press must give more than news; it must also be educational.
