VICE PRESIDENT

The Vice President of the United States
176 Executive Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Vice President:

We need your help.

Seventy of our key Machinists leaders from across the nation and the Executive Council of our union will be in session in Washington January 15 through 19, planning our political program for 1968. We would like you to be our climax speaker at 10:00 a.m., Friday, January 19, in our auditorium, 1300 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest. The conference will conclude at noon.

We hope, with your message, to send our members out to mobilize the million members of the Machinists union. Please let us know whether this can be done.

Sincerely,

P. L. Siemiller
