Gunsbach

Dear June, -

Here I am in the loft of the Gunsbach church. It is pouring outside. Julia is in TeeTee (my car) studying french. This morning she looked out at the weather and said: "Is that what I am going to stand out in, and warn people not to make any noise?" Bob is studying french in the truck, getting bum tips from the little boys. Every once in a while he uses the P.A. system to ask me the answer to a tough one. Here comes Edouard. He and I must tune the oboes before this afternoon's session begins. Yesterday went very well. The whole Passacaglia got done in one afternoon, - and this morning the whole Mendelssohn IV Sonata. Now we attack the 2nd French Chorale. I hear Eric's + A S's steps coming up the stairway. It all goes much better this year. He is in fine practice and Edouard is a great help, - also we can now work in the morning. No roof builders, - also all visitors are being kept out.

Could you try to find out when Anita plans to come + let me know télégraphiquement? In about a week would be ideal for us. (5 or 10 days, - but take 2 weeks)

Did you get my card asking for the Sat reviews?

Maud may call you or call you about meeting them, or doing something with the car. I don't remember what it was. She is on the Elizabeth leaving Sept 10. Oh yes, I remember. Sheila is trying to get on a plane. In which case she would have to be met and shuttled on through N.Y. Maud will let you know in time.

Coty is in Cassis.

Eve says Zulu died in the hospital. ~~poor~~ passis

Ophelia's hair is bleach blonde

A.S. is rehearsing the 2nd duet "right now" it is beautiful and has the famous theme from the symphony in it.

We are all in love with the Cigogne Hotel. Such food, such rooms! such cute people!

Maud and her brood were here for several days.

No time to make drawings of A.S. this year. I have to draw stops + turn over paper.

Have to go now
